BRAINBOX

The year at a glance

One sector campaign per month. All three Associates work every campaign together; Abi leads each as Lead Campaign Manager. January is a consolidation and reactivation month rather than a new campaign, reflecting the summer slowdown.

10

Sector campaigns across the year

3

Associates on every campaign (RF • AF • DT)

1

Lead Campaign Manager throughout (Abi)

150+

Pre-identified prospects distributed (15 × 10)

How to read this plan. Each monthly campaign has its own detailed pack (Campaign 01–10). This overview sets the schedule, the operating model, the roles, and the consolidated success metrics Abi reports against at the end of each campaign.

BASELINE OUTCOME

Every week, the campaign team delivers at least 6 new in-person appointments for the BDM — the non-negotiable floor (≈ 24+ per campaign month). Video / phone meetings are a fallback and do not count toward the baseline.

The operating model

One Lead Campaign Manager gives the year consistency; three Associates give each campaign reach. The 15 pre-identified prospects per campaign are distributed by the Lead Campaign Manager, and every Associate adds their own researched targets on top. Each Associate is a Lead Generation Specialist working to the standard, weekly rhythm and targets defined in the Lead Generation Playbook.

LEAD CAMPAIGN MANAGER — ABI AF

Leads all ten campaigns end to end. Coordinates the distribution of pre-identified prospects, oversees Associate activity and quality, and prepares the consolidated end-of-campaign report against the nominated success metrics. Also carries an Associate share of the outreach.

ASSOCIATES RF AF DT

Rory, Abi and Dodellysa are each a Lead Generation Specialist and work every campaign. Each takes an allocated share of the pre-identified prospects, researches and adds more, works the Playbook's weekly rhythm (Mon–Fri) across the four weeks of the month, books qualified appointments for the BDM, and logs all activity in HubSpot for the consolidated report.

How a campaign runs each month

Stage	What happens	Owner
Set-up	Lead Campaign Manager loads the campaign, distributes the 15 pre-identified prospects (5 each) and confirms the sector focus with Marketing & the BDM.	AF
Research	Each Associate verifies their allocation and adds their own researched accounts at the Playbook rate (20–30 new accounts/week).	RF · AF · DT
Outreach	All three run the Playbook's weekly rhythm each week — email + Insight Article, calls, LinkedIn, follow-up sequence.	RF · AF · DT
Oversight	Weekly review (30 min) with the sales lead on activity, quality and blockers; re-balancing prospects where needed.	AF
Booking	Qualified appointments booked for the BDM with a complete HubSpot handover note.	RF · AF · DT
Report	Consolidated end-of-campaign report prepared against the nominated success metrics.	AF

The FY27 schedule

Ten sector campaigns, one per month, August 2026 to June 2027. January 2027 is a consolidation and reactivation month — no new campaign — to work warm leads and clean data through the summer slowdown.

Roles & responsibilities

Abi holds the Lead Campaign Manager role for the whole year and also delivers as an Associate. The three Associates carry the outreach for every campaign.

Responsibility	Lead Campaign Mgr (AF)	Associates (RF · AF · DT)
Distribute pre-identified prospects	Owns	Receive & verify allocation
Research & add target accounts	Contributes	Own — each adds their own
Run the Playbook's weekly rhythm across the campaign	Contributes	Own
Book qualified appointments for the BDM	Contributes	Own
Oversee Associate activity & quality	Owns	Report activity
Weekly check-in & unblocking	Owns	Attend & action
HubSpot hygiene & handover notes	Assures	Own for their accounts
Liaison with Marketing Manager & BDM	Owns	Support
Consolidated end-of-campaign report	Owns	Provide their numbers

Prospect distribution. Each month the Lead Campaign Manager splits the 15 pre-identified prospects evenly — 5 to each Associate — matched to fit and workload. Each Associate then researches and adds their own accounts at the Playbook's steady-state rate, so across three Associates a campaign works roughly 240–360 accounts in the month.

Leading the team — Abi's cadence

Abi's supervision rhythm turns oversight into coaching — keeping each campaign on track while helping Rory, Abi and Dodellysa grow toward their full potential. It runs alongside the Playbook's weekly rhythm, not on top of it.

Rhythm	What Abi runs	Purpose
Daily · 10 min	Async stand-up in HubSpot / chat — yesterday's touches & appointments, today's priority, any blockers.	Momentum & fast unblocking
Weekly · 30 min	Team review of activity vs target and the in-person baseline , then a short 1:1 with each Associate.	Accountability & support
Weekly · 20 min	Quality review — listen to one call and read two message threads per Associate; coach on a single thing.	Skill lift
Fortnightly · 30 min	Pipeline & handover review with the BDM on meeting quality, fit and conversion.	Sales alignment
Monthly · 45 min	Development review per Associate — progress on the skills matrix, one stretch goal, recognition.	Growth
Per campaign	Kickoff (brief, prospect split, angles) and retro (what worked, what to change next time).	Learn & reset

COACHING FOCUS IN EVERY 1:1

- Celebrate a win, then name one thing to improve
- Review real calls & messages, not just numbers
- Unblock data, tooling or targeting issues
- Agree one specific action before next week

HELPING EACH ASSOCIATE REACH POTENTIAL

- Skills matrix: research · outreach · calling · qualifying · booking
- One stretch goal per month, tracked openly
- Pair strengths — buddy up on tougher sectors
- Recognise the behaviour, not only the result

Always Be Kind — in management too. Feedback is specific, timely and kind; targets are firm but support comes first. The aim is a confident team that clears the weekly in-person baseline and keeps getting better.

Success metrics & consolidated reporting

Every campaign is measured on the same nominated metrics. The Lead Campaign Manager consolidates all three Associates' results into one end-of-campaign report. The final measure is leads that become commercial transactions.

BASELINE OUTCOME

The team delivers at least 6 new in-person appointments for the BDM every week (≈ 24+ per campaign month) — the floor below which the week is not acceptable. In-person is the premium, baselined meeting; video / phone is a fallback only.

Activity targets — aligned to the Playbook steady-state

Each Associate works to the Lead Generation Playbook's steady-state weekly targets throughout a campaign; the monthly and campaign totals below follow directly from those weekly figures.

Metric	Per Associate / wk	Per Associate / mth	Campaign / mth (×3)
New target accounts	20–30	80–120	240–360
Contacts researched & enriched	80–120	320–480	960–1,440
First-touch actions (with Insight Article)	60–80	240–320	720–960
Follow-up actions	120–180	480–720	1,440–2,160
Calls	50–80	200–320	600–960
Live conversations	20–30	80–120	240–360
Warm opportunities created	8–12	32–48	96–144
Qualified appointments booked (feeding the BDM)	4–8	16–32	48–96
In-person appointments for the BDM	≥2	≥8	≥6/wk · ≥24
Reactivation appointments	2–4	8–16	24–48

Also per the Playbook. Each Associate progresses 20+ new sales-exec LinkedIn connections per profile per week, and campaign work is cross-referenced into these weekly targets — never run as a separate queue. Targets are reviewed after the first six weeks.

NOMINATED SUCCESS METRICS

- Qualified appointments booked & held
- Appointments → sales opportunities
- Opportunities → proposals
- Proposals → commercial transactions (final measure)
- Sales acceptance of leads · no-show rate · data quality

END-OF-CAMPAIGN REPORT (ABI)

- Consolidated activity & outcomes vs target
- Per-Associate contribution (RF · AF · DT)
- Outcome funnel through to commercial transaction
- Best angles, triggers & top objections
- Data quality & recommendations for the next campaign

FINAL SUCCESS MEASURE

Across the year, the number of leads that turn into sales opportunities and subsequently become a commercial transaction. Every campaign metric is a leading indicator of that single revenue outcome.
